

STORY HUNT

Tim was so excited about the IW Story Festival he couldn't wait to read the stories. But as he was reading all the characters escaped!

Luckily they have been found by some Isle of Wight businesses, who have posted their pictures on their Facebook pages! Can you help to find them?

Use the clues to find the Facebook pages they're hiding on:

1. This character can change both shape and size and has gone to a costume shop to help his disguise.

2. This animal who has very sharp teeth has gone to a French cafe for something to eat.

3. This creature can give you quite a bad day, but has gone to a store with a more easy way.

4. This insect is known to make some people shiver and has been found by a bookshop named after a river.

5. This animal wants to decorate his rocket so has gone to an art shop you don't want to forget.

6. This ex-witch who is named after a bluebell has gone to a shop where a dragon flies well.

7. This bird who always give things away has been found by an Italian island cafe.

8. This girl is sometimes seen as a crook, but has gone to a place she can borrow a book.

9. This animal always goes where he's sent and has been found by a shop where nature is present.

10. This boy who knows it's wise to sleep not a wink, has been found by a florist who appears rather Pink.

11. This insect can often been seen flying free, but has stopped at a cafe for comics and coffee.

12. This animal always has something clever to say, and can be found playing games at a local cafe.

How many did you find? We'll post the answers on 21st February!
